2027 Exhibit Schedule

Schedule	Exhibit
January-February	Quilts by the Angel Quilters and Fiber arts by local artists/artisans
March	YOUTH ART MONTH IOW County Student Art Work
April	Chasing the Light Light and Shadow can completely transform the way we see the world. They create depth and contrast, define form, draw attention and set a mood. Artists are invited to explore light in all its forms. From dramatic shadows and glowing landscapes to reflections, silhouettes, changing daylight or simply the way light falls across an everyday object. Works in all mediums are welcome. Early Spring show.
May –June	Keep It Liminal and Simple Art of all mediums that focus on transitional empty spaces, devoid of any human presence and visual noise, creating only what is necessary for the artwork and not a lot of items to clutter. Works in all mediums are welcome. Spring show
June - July	2027 Isle of Wight Arts League Members Open Show Show us what you've been working on! Our members show their latest works in all mediums. People's Choice Award allows visitor interaction. Summer exhibit.
Aug - Sep	Mythology, Fantasy and Folklore Step into a world shaped by imagination, legend and lore. Artists are invited to draw inspiration from mythology, folklore, fairy tales, ancient stories and reimagined legends from cultures around the world. Works in all mediums are welcome. Late Summer Exhibit.
Oct - Nov	IT'S Our Town: Happy 275th Smithfield In commemoration of the 275th anniversary of the town of Smithfield works will showcase the picturesque scenes of the Town of Smithfield and the surrounding countryside as well as the people, past and present, and their recreation, interests, work and homes. Streetscapes, historic homes or local businesses as well as country roads, barns, farm scenes and farm animals including our beloved pigs will help share the story of our Town and Country life. Works in all mediums are acceptable. Fall show.
December	WINTER WONDERS Paintings, Pottery, Artful Decorations and Hand-made Wearables Perfect for gifting or putting on your wish list